WAGNER INSURANCE MAKES ARTEMIS CENTER DONATION

DAYTON, OH (May 5, 2009) Wagner Insurance Agency, an independent insurance agency with three locations in the Greater Dayton area, made a donation last month to the Artemis Center in downtown Dayton. The donation is part of a unique promotion which pays a five dollar benefit to Artemis for each new business referral made by an existing Wagner Insurance client.

“It’s a great marketing tool,” says Mike Wagner, President of Wagner Insurance Agency. “When one of our clients recommends a friend or neighbor to quote their insurance with us, we turn around and pay Artemis a small donation. This is the second year for the promotion. We are keeping records again for the current year and are planning to make another donation in 2010.”

The resulting donation for 2008 was $325.00. The charity promotion is being held at the Wagner Insurance locations in Dayton, Kettering and West Milton, Ohio.

The Artemis Center is located in downtown Dayton at 310 West Monument Ave. It provides early intervention, supportive services, and education for victims of domestic violence and their children.
